

Good Clinical Practices

Good Clinical Practices Program are initiatives from Indian Journal of Pharmacology (IJP), under the aegis of Indian Pharmacological Society (IPS) for the scientific community in India. The main aim of the program is to keep update about the recent standard's Ethical concepts in research.

India is continuously working in research and drug development. However, we need to fuel the path of drug development. Therefore, these types of programs will nurture the ignite young faculty/students of country and will able to design the research work on the basis of recent update of ethical view.

1st GCP PGIMER, Chandigarh:19- 20 May 2018

2nd GCP PGIMER, Chandigarh: 1-2 Dec. 2018

3rd GCP PGIMER, Chandigarh: 19-20 May 2019

4th GCP PGIMER, Chandigarh: 18-19 Dec 2020

The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting interface. On the left, a slide titled "Registrar" lists several individuals with their names, titles, and contact information. A red circle highlights the "Registrar" column. On the right, a man is visible in a video call window. Below the video window, a list of participants is shown.

Name	Designation	Phone No.	Email
Dr. Chandrabhat Bhatia	Government Medical College and Hospital	9876543210	chandrabhatia@gmail.com
Dr. Lavanya Guleri	PGIMER & GGS Hospital	9876543210	lavanyaguleri@gmail.com
Dr. N. K. Bhatia	Medical Research Institute	9876543210	nkbhatia@gmail.com
Dr. Gaur Garg	PGIMER Medical College	9876543210	gaurgarg@gmail.com

5th GCP PGIMER, Chandigarh: 27-28 Dec 2021

The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting interface. On the left, a slide titled "Indian Pharmacological Society" is displayed, featuring the society's logo and the text "We accelerate innovative mind and Drug Development". On the right, a man is visible in a video call window. Below the video window, a list of participants is shown.